WORST IN YEARS WAS THIS STORM

Lightning, Wind and Rain
For Two Days.

Street Cars and Trees Are Struck in Paducah—Baptist Church Unroofed at Fulton.

RAINFALL WAS 1.17 INCHES.

One of the fiercest electrical, rain and wind storms in years visited Paducah Saturday and continued at intervals through Saturday night Sunday and Sunday night. Considering the amount of lightning and the velocity of the wind, little damage was done.

The fact that the lightning did not affect wiring in Paducah seriously is attributed to the fact that most of the wiring is up-to-date. There were few cases of burned out lights, but electrical firms in Paducah report dozens of burned fuses.

The railroad, telephone and telegraph companies report little damage. Sunday several wires were down on the south end of the Illinois Central. One wire was working north after the severe wind storm of Sunday morning. Linemen quickly repaired the breaks, which were caused by falling trees.

Several street cars were incapacitated by the electrical display, and lightning struck several trees in the city, one being in the Loeb yard at Fifth street and Broadway.

Reports from the county show little damage. At Fulton the Baptist church was partly unroofed and one or two barns in the county blown from their foundations.

The rainfall is as follows:
Saturday, .14; Sunday to 7 o'clock, .78; Sunday night to 7 o'clock this morning, .25; total, 1.17.

River Property Suffered Little.

No damage is reported in marine circles. The steamboatmen took warning and made everything fast to the bank. Extra lines were run out and every precaution taken to protect the property.

Several signs were blown down about the city and some windows broken by flying tree limbs. The big glass Elk Hall sign in front of the Elk Hall on North Fourth street was blown down.

SLIGHTLY AHEAD IS CHAUTAUQUA

Despite Bad Weather Public
Interest Was High.

Next Year's Plans Are Well Under Way and Permanent Pavilion
Will Be Erected.

CONTRACT WITH THE MANAGER.

When the final results are known, the Chautauqua will have come out a small sum ahead. The tents and chairs are being packed to be shipped to Decatur, Ill., the next point in the Chautauqua itinerary.

Already the success of the Chautauqua has been such, not in a financial way, but in public interest, that plans for next year's Chautauqua are well under way. It is confidently expected that a permanent pavilion will have been built by the time the next one opens, though just where it will be has not been decided.

It was the spirit of this Chautauqua which has made it a success. Despite the most unfavorable weather, the interest has been intense, and last night, while the rain entered the tent freely, there was the greatest good humor exhibited. It is estimated that the Chautauqua would have come out $500 ahead if favorable weather had been the rule.

The promoters of this entertainment are an organization without capital. Whatever money will be made, outside of 75 per cent paid to the promoters, will be put back into the enterprise, thus gradually raising the standard of attractions. They have a five year contract with James Shaw, the manager of the Chautauqua. The proposed pavilion will be weather proof and situated conveniently to the car lines and the woods, so that the camping feature may be developed. This is one of the most attractive features of the Chautauqua at Owensboro and all places where they have become established.

Everywhere may be heard comments on the high character of the entertainment and the moral uplift it has given the city. And as with each year the standard of entertainers will become higher, the influence may be expected to correspondingly increase.

Disappearing Hotel Towels.

"We lose money enough in stolen towels every week to board half a dozen porters," said a hotel clerk. We never know exactly where they go, but they certainly disappear, and that right fast. If some of the people who take our towels would exert their energies in a more laudable vocation they would have been rich many moons ago.

"There is scarcely a room in the hotel that does not lose a towel at least three times a week. Of course, we place several kinds—face towels, bath towels and just plain towels—in each one, and someone finds them so attractive that they are dropped into a grip and hustled out with the remainder of the luggage.

"When you figure that a good bath towel costs from 10 to 20 cents, and other towels anywhere from 3 to 5 cents, you probably can estimate the dead loss to a hotel. It is very convenient to drop them into satchels, suit cases or trunks, and they are right handy to wrap shoes or other dirty articles of clothing in."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Big Circus Coming.

The John Robinson shows, one of the biggest circus aggregations on the road, will play in Paducah, and the "movement" was received by the local Illinois Central officials this morning. The shows consist of the following rolling stock: 46 cars, three advertising, 10 passenger coaches 11 stock and 22 flat cars.
